A star-struck adventurer stares up into the sky and the darkest blues of deepest space. A polished steel link bracelet holds the gleaming stainless steel case of this Irony Big. Four compass points on the sole marks on the bezel framing a dial that evokes a telescope directed into space. A minute ring with an Arabic numeric scale (5, 10, 15 ... 60) surrounds a ribbed dark blue crescent holding an intensely dark blue sphere beneath an arched, white-on-black five-day date window. Two-tone metal hour and minute hands and a metal squeuelette seconds hand mark the time.
