Love Explosion

A cluster of light blue crystal pearls is gathered on a polished stainless steel ring. The pearls are like stones from another world, each one set in a shining cup, each one a sparkle of light that forms the shining image of a star. You, of course, are the star of this show, the princess of pearls and polished steel, and your entrance into the club is another Love Explosion. You sense the ring on your hand and the eyes of the crowd upon you and a quivering pleasure shivers through your fingers as you feel the curves of polished steel and the smooth and soothing surface of the pearls.
