Fly me to the moon—this stylish Irony Chrono will keep time on the way. The stainless steel link bracelet holds a polished case and bezel with a black tachymetre scale. A white band with black minute indices and orange split-second indices and hour markers rings the brown brossé dial and chrono counters. Dominating the dial are a large Arabic mirrored applique numeral 12, a black-on-white date window at hour 3 and a recessed white continuous-seconds counter flanked by small steel screws on white. Reflective metal squeuelette hour and minute hands and an orange chrono seconds hand mark time.
