The look: power and precision engineering. A black leather strap with red and white stitching holds a sunbrushed steel case and black steel bezel with engraved tachymetre scale. The outermost ring on the grainy beige dial is a black telemeter. Large red-rimmed black Arabic numerals at 4, 8 and 12 frame two recessed black guilloché counters with white indices and a continuous seconds counter at hour 6. At hour 4 a date window shows 4 days in white on black. Reflective metal squeuelette hour and minute hands and a red-tipped chrono seconds hand mark time.
