The bold design of this rugged Fun Boarder evokes azure skies and brilliant powder snow. The strap is textured, moulded white textile with blue and red band; the transparent, milky white plastic case has a red crown and red bezel with white altimeter. The blue dial takes up the strap colour scheme with white Arabic numerals at 3, 6, 9 and 12 and white hour markers, a white band with black indices and numerals (10, 20...60) and a red Snowpass logo and mesh grey center (the logo is on the band) (. Mirrored metal hour and minute hands with red and white-dot highlights mark the time.
