Swatch Watch Cutotto (SUOZ259C), designed by Paola Navone

The famous Italian designer Paola Navone has designed for Swatch the watch Swatch Cutotto (SUOZ259C), a very special watch whose design has been inspired by the paper cut figures of Chinese art. With figures in red on a white background, in the Swatch Cutotto watch (SUOZ259C), you will be able to find various simplified everyday objects as if they were paper cutouts. In this way, Paola Navone has wanted to unite the oriental and occidental cultures creating a work of art worthy of any collector.

About Paola Navone:

She was born and spent her youth in Turin (Italy), studied architecture at the polytechnic school of the city and graduated in 1973, later moving to Milan and beginning to take her first steps as a designer. He has worked as a creative artist for numerous brands such as Swarovski, Triade, Abet Laminati, Casamilano, Alessi... In 1983 he was awarded the prestigious Osaka International Design Award.

Paola Navone has designed for Swatch, in addition to this model, the watch Swatch Tartanotto (SUOZ258C) with an equally very characteristic design of this well-known Italian designer.

The Swatch Cutotto watch (SUOZ259C) combines oriental and occidental culture creating a work of art for collectors
