Jain designs the special Swatch ZANAKA watch (SUOZ265S): new, independent and unconventional

New, independent and unconventional - this is Jain and this is ZANAKA. Inspired by experiences from her childhood spent in Africa, Europe and the Far East, Jain has channeled her artistic energy from her music to the design of her first ever Swatch Art Special.

ZANAKA is the Malagasy word for "child," and each of the 10,150 limited watches features a printed pattern of stick figure children dancing on the dial and around the strap. In Jain's words, "When I was going to school I used to draw little dancing children in a corner of my notebook. They came along with me to Pointe-Noire and Abu Dhabi and for me they signify rhythm and zest for life."

Those same drawings followed Jain onto her very own Swatch Art Special and embody the joie de vivre of this limited and numbered design.

Move with African rhythm with the Swatch ZANAKA watch (SUOZ265S)
